THE POWER OF CFO

Running a business is a full-time job. Any successful entrepreneur will tell you that one of the most critical parts of that job is allocating the limited resources of a small business for maximum return. Having a seasoned Chief Financial Officer (CFO) to provide financial expertise and strategic advice is a luxury most Chief Executive Officers (CEO) do not believe they can afford. Ironically, one of the greatest vulnerabilities of most small businesses is not having a seasoned CFO who can manage limited cash flows, advise on strategic decisions, and help to establish a strong financial foundation on which the business can enjoy growth for years to come.

Excel Global Partners (EGP) is pleased to offer the Part-Time CFO Solution. This solution is geared to small businesses that might not be able to afford, nor need, a full-time CFO. By tapping into the experience and advice of a seasoned CFO, small businesses can develop a competitive edge in a dynamic marketplace.

Cash Flow Management: Any entrepreneur will tell you that managing cash is one of the most stressful parts of running your own business. At EGP, our team members have guided organizations through some of their most difficult times. With an eye on your dollar, your CFO will help to maximize your cash flow and to minimize your expenses.

Utilizing a seasoned financial professional can provide sanity to the busy life of an entrepreneur. Our CFOs have the best interest of your business at the forefront of their mind.

Building a Foundation: A business leader's job is to grow the business. The job of the leader's CFO is to make sure that your business maintains a strong financial foundation for growth well into the future. That foundation, based upon real-world experience, will give you an advantage today and beyond!
