

EGP + CPM = a POWERFUL solution!

EGP. Excel Global Partners is a business consulting firm that offers custom-tailored services for your organization. These solutions fit your business' unique needs and drive success at all stages of the growth cycle. EGP offers a track record of results that is best suited not just for today but also for tomorrow, from reviewing your current systems to knowing where your organization is headed. EGP will help you through efficient design and implementation with an award-winning blend of comprehensive technical understanding of the best solutions in corporate performance management (CPM).

Implementation. Involves strategies that include numerous distinct stages, involving the use of a sophisticated project management team with the requisite capabilities to lead a successful conversion. EGP experts will provide solutions to your organization; we will work with your management team to make sound decisions and provide superior technical knowledge to ensure a smooth and successful transition.

Change Management. We consider Change Management and cultural acceptance a significant part of the systems and processes conversion, whether large or small. At EGP, we work with your team to ensure that encompassing the entire project and implementation, these important aspects are addressed. In all actions we consider the best delivery to support a positive outcome at your organization. This does not look for the same for every organization and we consider those variables. Again, we like to be a true partner in your company's financial transformation.

Value Add ons. Clients that are already using OneStream and want to add additional functionality can call on EGP to jump in and assist with future phases, whether it is phase 2, 3, and on, we can quickly assess the need. This can be an as needed basis, to allow our clients to fit the additional functionality build in between their heavy workloads. We can help you to recognize your investment by expanding and enabling OneStream to encompass more.

Customized Solutions. We listen to our customers at EGP. Our technological expertise, our understanding of CPM trends, best practices, and worldwide experience in companies throughout the globe complement this strategy. The overall result is a tailored solution that meets customer needs, long-term expectations, and resources.

Our corporate experience also enables us to link end-user needs with technological resources - we have the expertise to bridge the gap between financial services, accounting, and IT.

Top Notch Training. EGP provides your workforce with personalized training on your system to create your organization's sustainability and value. Our expert consultants provide training on a vast selection at numerous levels. We can develop and/or deliver - you decide!
