

WE MAKE YOUR BUSINESS BETTER THAN OTHERS

Colleges and Universities are in the midst of unprecedented financial crisis and operational change. Costs have been growing at unsustainable rates, and demographic trends indicate that student demand will drop in the future. If you add in the numerous challenges posed by COVID-19, you get a crisis that threatens the higher education business model as we know it.

University finance teams must lead at speed with agile planning, insightful analytics, and increased efficiency to assist institutions handle these challenges. University leaders must now make fast in-year reforecasts while also considering the long-term financial impacts of their choices.

While institutions used to have the luxury of making modest, gradual changes, they are now being driven to re-imagine practically every area of their operational and financial operations in order to improve efficiency and save costs.

Finance leaders are re-evaluating their historical corporate performance management (CPM) solutions in order to meet these rising demands.
